

Kaplan International Center

Northeastern University

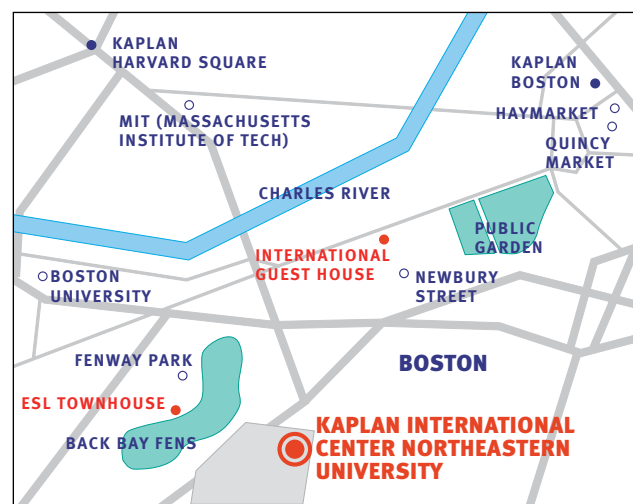

Northeastern is a private research university set in the fashionable Back Bay area of Boston. Since its foundation in 1898, the university has built a reputation for academic quality and community spirit. The university occupies a beautiful urban campus with grassy quads and tree-lined walkways in the heart of the city, close to the Museum of Fine Arts and within walking distance of stylish Newbury Street.

As a student here, you are required to pay a small campus fee which will give you access to excellent campus facilities including dining halls, coffee shops, food halls and three fitness centers. There are several campus entertainment venues and good access to public transport makes it easy to explore the rest of Boston's attractions.

Additionally all students at the Northeastern center will receive a Husky ID card which entitles them to a wide range of discounts at restaurants, cinemas, shops and cultural attractions throughout the city including the Museum of Fine Arts, the Boston Symphony and many others. Student can speak with Kaplan International Centers for a list of benefits and participating businesses.

Local Information

Transport - buses and trains

The MBTA (commonly referred to as the "T") is the oldest subway system in America. The "T" encompasses the subway (green, red, blue, orange and red lines), buses and commuter rail (larger, faster trains that travel above ground to the suburbs surrounding Boston). Daily subway rides are USD $2.00 each way and buses are USD $1.50. Students are encouraged to purchase a transportation pass (called a "Charlie Card") to travel around the city and to and from the Kaplan International Center. Prices vary. The MBTA's website (www.mbta.com) is a great resource to for additional information about transportation in Boston. Kaplan is conveniently located outside of Ruggles Station on the orange line.

Banks and Post Office

The closest bank is Bank of America which is on campus. The nearest post office is located in the Prudential Center, a 10-minute walk from the center.

Department stores and supermarkets

Students can shop at the Prudential Mall and Copley Place Mall, which are walking distance from the center. Linked by a footbridge that spans busy Huntington Avenue, both malls host designer stores for a complete brand-name shopping experience.

Telephone and Internet Café

There is free wireless internet access on campus, and the Starbucks café on campus also offers Wi-Fi.
