

Kaplan International College

Salisbury

Welcome to Kaplan International College in Salisbury. Here you can study English with friendly teachers in a beautiful college building and easy access to the city of Salisbury.

Salisbury is a city rich in history, home to one of the UK's most beautiful cathedrals. Close to the World Heritage Site of Stonehenge, this city of 40,000 inhabitants is a bustling community. Salisbury boasts a thriving market, fascinating old streets, traditional pubs, restaurants and shops and even a cinema entered via a medieval banqueting hall! Enjoy breathtaking views from Britain's tallest cathedral spire; find a bargain at the busy twice-weekly market; take part in one of the many sports available or explore the New Forest, Salisbury Plain or one of the scenic villages all close by.

Our college is situated in an elegant Victorian building ideally located five minutes walk away from the city centre. Students can make use of the free e-mail and Internet facilities or relax in the large garden with sun terrace and enjoy a game of table tennis overlooking the cathedral. There is a common room with tea and coffee making facilities and delicious freshly made rolls are available daily.
